- EMIS Change 25-91:

If using the KRA for the Reading Diagnostic for kindergarten students, do not report an RD Assessment Record. The Department will take the results for these students from the GO Assessment Record.

General Collection Information

- Who Reports

- Traditional Districts
- Community Schools
- STEM Districts
- State-supported schools

If multiple districts are involved, the district with the latest enrollment should report the KRA results.

- KRA results should not be reported for John Peterson and Autism Scholarship students.
- Retained Kindergarten students are not required to be administered the KRA.

KRA Administration Window

KRA Administration window is not earlier than July 1 of the current school year and no later than the twentieth day of instruction of the current school year.

Students enrolled after the twentieth day of instruction do not have to be assessed.

Teachers have a November 1 deadline to enter data in the KReady system and data managers have until November 9th to clean up transfer requests
